Pinot Blanc is the third sibling of the Pinot family and is very important to us. Pinot Blanc is generally more slender than Pinot Gris and our Pinot Blanc from the Oberbergener Bassgeige is particularly refreshing with fine fruit aromas. Pinot Blanc from the Oberbergener Pulverbuck site is marked more by its minerality. The best Pinot Blanc is matured in big oak barrels while we use smaller barriques for our Pinot Blanc-Selections which are finely textured and remain filigree despite their power and exquisite ageing potential.

Fresh with an elegant fruit, minerality, fine glaze, powerful
