

Wine Spectator

93 Domaine Alain Voge Saint-Joseph Les Vinsonnes 2010

Rather bold, with roasted fig and warm boysenberry confiture liberally layered with charcoal, roasted mesquite, anise and ganache.

Almost heady, but the grip is there, with a smoldering charcoal note that holds the finish together. Best from 2014 through 2022. 330 cases made. —JM