

95 Domaine Alain Voge
Cornas Les Vieilles Vignes 2015
Editors' Choice

Layers of charred meat, granite and anise lend complexity to blackberry and cherry on the nose of this wine. Despite the ample fruit it maintains an earthen, mineral undertone and long finish with ripe, persistent tannins. This riveting wine should open and meld over the next decade and hold further.