Château Le Bruilleau Pessac-Léognan

55% Merlot, 45% Cabernet Sauvignon

Aged in French oak barrels for 12 months, this fullbodied wine is characterized by red and black fruit with hints of spice on the nose. In the mouth, dark fruit and notes of toasted almonds lead into a lush, lingering finish.

Château Le Bruilleau Pessac-Léognan

55% Merlot, 45% Cabernet Sauvignon

Aged in French oak barrels for 12 months, this fullbodied wine is characterized by red and black fruit with hints of spice on the nose. In the mouth, dark fruit and notes of toasted almonds lead into a lush, lingering finish.

Château Le Bruilleau Pessac-Léognan

55% Merlot, 45% Cabernet Sauvignon

Aged in French oak barrels for 12 months, this fullbodied wine is characterized by red and black fruit with hints of spice on the nose. In the mouth, dark fruit and notes of toasted almonds lead into a lush, lingering finish.

Château Le Bruilleau Pessac-Léognan

55% Merlot, 45% Cabernet Sauvignon

Aged in French oak barrels for 12 months, this fullbodied wine is characterized by red and black fruit with hints of spice on the nose. In the mouth, dark fruit and notes of toasted almonds lead into a lush, lingering finish.

Château Le Bruilleau Pessac-Léognan

55% Merlot, 45% Cabernet Sauvignon

Aged in French oak barrels for 12 months, this fullbodied wine is characterized by red and black fruit with hints of spice on the nose. In the mouth, dark fruit and notes of toasted almonds lead into a lush, lingering finish.

Château Le Bruilleau Pessac-Léognan

55% Merlot, 45% Cabernet Sauvignon

Aged in French oak barrels for 12 months, this fullbodied wine is characterized by red and black fruit with hints of spice on the nose. In the mouth, dark fruit and notes of toasted almonds lead into a lush, lingering finish.

Château Le Bruilleau Pessac-Léognan

55% Merlot, 45% Cabernet Sauvignon

Aged in French oak barrels for 12 months, this fullbodied wine is characterized by red and black fruit with hints of spice on the nose. In the mouth, dark fruit and notes of toasted almonds lead into a lush, lingering finish.

Château Le Bruilleau Pessac-Léognan

55% Merlot, 45% Cabernet Sauvignon

Aged in French oak barrels for 12 months, this fullbodied wine is characterized by red and black fruit with hints of spice on the nose. In the mouth, dark fruit and notes of toasted almonds lead into a lush, lingering finish.

Château Le Bruilleau Pessac-Léognan

55% Merlot, 45% Cabernet Sauvignon

Aged in French oak barrels for 12 months, this fullbodied wine is characterized by red and black fruit with hints of spice on the nose. In the mouth, dark fruit and notes of toasted almonds lead into a lush, lingering finish.

Château Le Bruilleau Pessac-Léognan

55% Merlot, 45% Cabernet Sauvignon

Aged in French oak barrels for 12 months, this fullbodied wine is characterized by red and black fruit with hints of spice on the nose. In the mouth, dark fruit and notes of toasted almonds lead into a lush, lingering finish.

Château Le Bruilleau Pessac-Léognan

55% Merlot, 45% Cabernet Sauvignon

Aged in French oak barrels for 12 months, this fullbodied wine is characterized by red and black fruit with hints of spice on the nose. In the mouth, dark fruit and notes of toasted almonds lead into a lush, lingering finish.

Château Le Bruilleau Pessac-Léognan

55% Merlot, 45% Cabernet Sauvignon

Aged in French oak barrels for 12 months, this fullbodied wine is characterized by red and black fruit with hints of spice on the nose. In the mouth, dark fruit and notes of toasted almonds lead into a lush, lingering finish.