

Ripe and generous flavors of cherry and plum, layered with leather and earth notes that are classic Bordeaux signatures. It's wonderfully concentrated and supple, supported by gentle, round tannins.

The vineyard is in Landerrouat, right on the edge of the Bordeaux appellation, practically touching that of Bergerac.