

With bright red fruit aromas and full rich flavors of cassis and dark berries, this smooth, medium-bodied wine has a purity of varietals that linger in the balanced finish.

Running along the edge of the Saint-Emilion appellation, the vineyard straddles the slopes of the Dordogne valley.