

The aromas flow between floral and fruity, with this 50/50 blend of Sauvignon and Semillon Blanc. Hints of citrus and mineral flavors linger on the palate with bright refreshing acidity.

45 hectares of vines are farmed in the village of Portets, which has arguably the best gravel soils of the Graves appellation.