

Wine Spectator

91 Domaine Alain Voge St. Peray Les Bulles d'Alain 2017

An unusual and delicious sparkling wine, with creamed pear and apricot, plus flashes of dried thyme and salted brioche. Rather than racy acid, the balance here is driven by chalky tannins and pithy bitterness, which deftly support the round, ripe palate. A whiff of smoke marks the fresh finish. Drink now through 2027. 495 cases made, 35 cases imported. — KB